

Partial pooling: where the model disagrees with the raw average

Points off the diagonal are participants whose estimate has been pulled toward the group, most visibly those with few trials.